TIGERON

In Los Angeles, Baldwin Hill Reservoir cracked, then broke releasing a torrent which wrecked hundreds of evacuated homes, but produced few casualties.

Sandy Koufax won two as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Yankees four straight for the world championship. At year's end, Koufax was named the league's Most Valuable Player. Right: James Whittaker of Redmond, Washington, became the first American to reach the top of Mt. Everest.

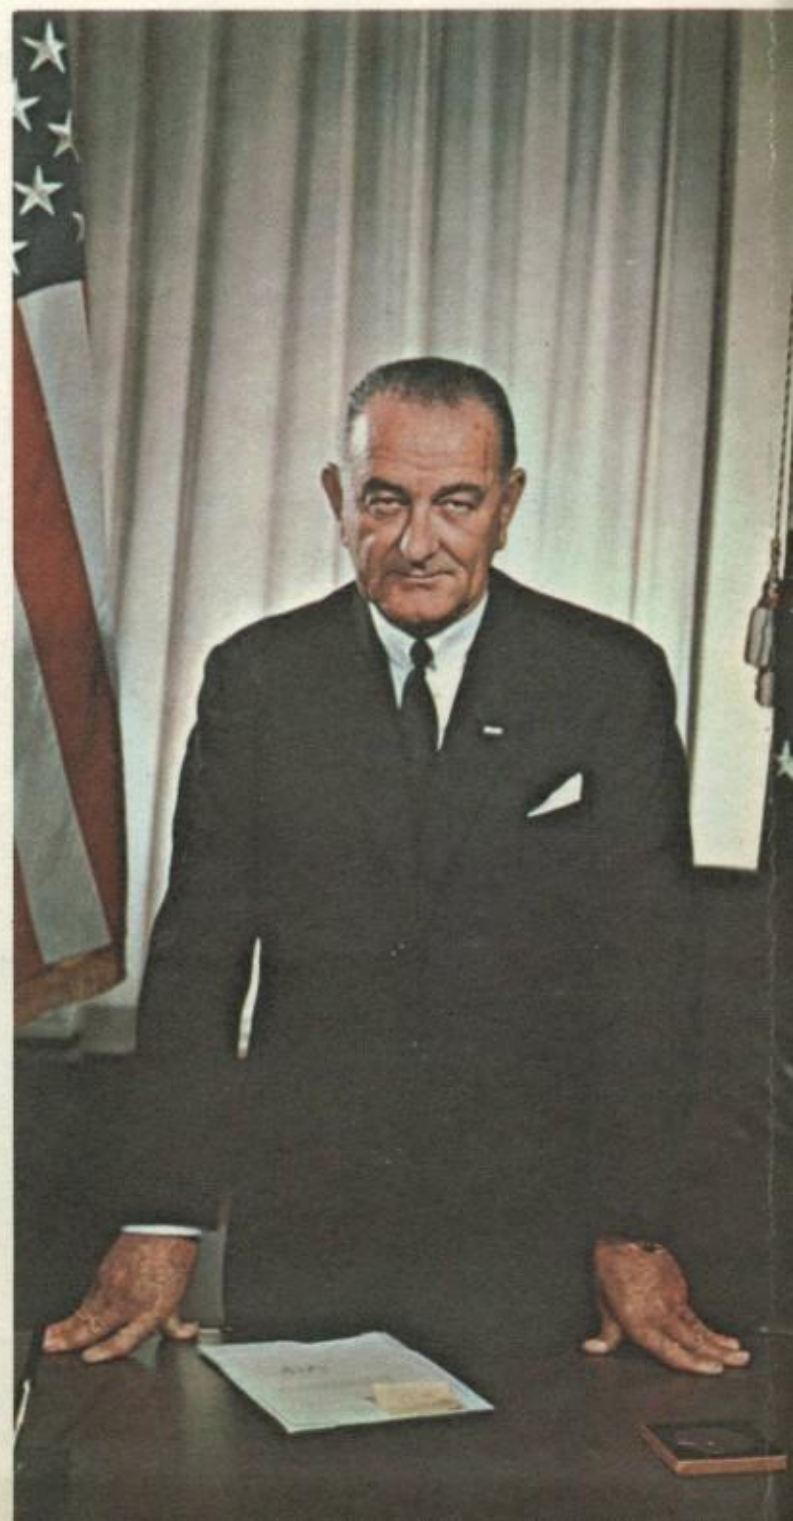

Quints were born in Aberdeen, S. D., and in Venezuela in the same week. Here two of the American quintts pose for pictures before going home.

Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas took office immediately following President Kennedy's death and affirmed his intention of continuing the foreign and domestic policies of his predecessor.

Leaking gas exploded during the finale of an ice show in Indianapolis, killing and injuring many others.

Ransomed for $240,000, Frank Sinatra, Jr. returned home safely two days after being kidnaped and posed with his sister Tina, left, and his mother, Mrs. Nancy Sinatra.

National Event

in Review—1963

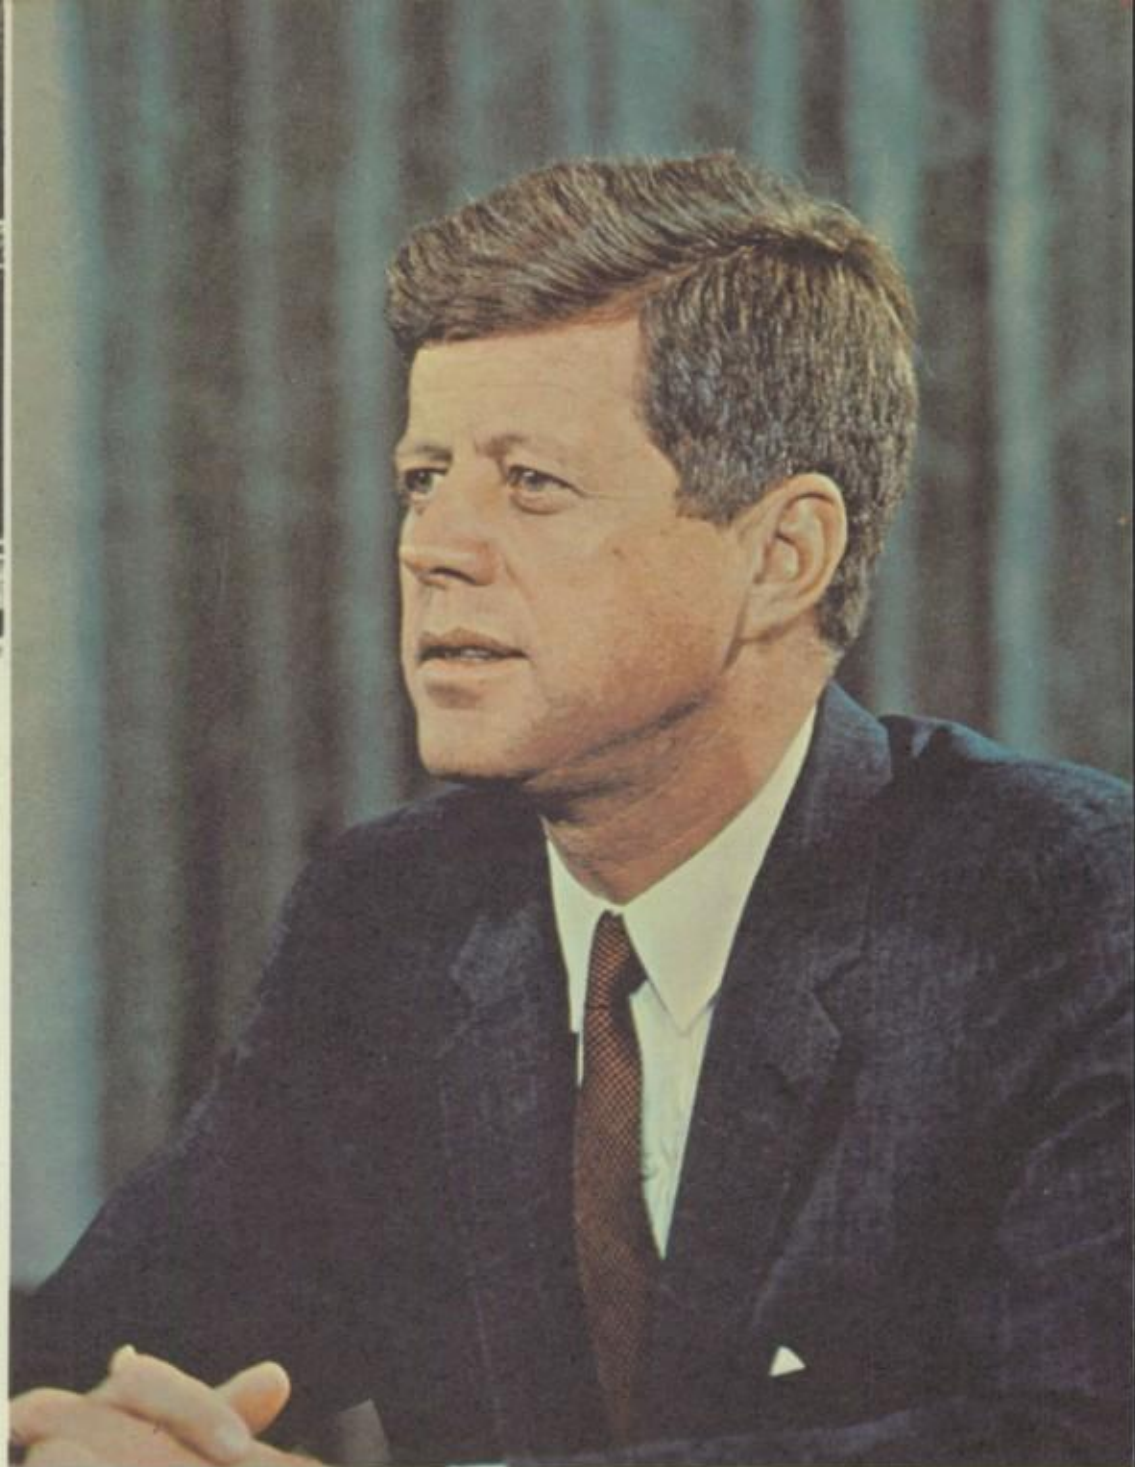

President DeGaulle of France, saluting, stands with German Chancellor Erhard, right, and President Lübke, as some heads of state gathered in tribute to the late President Kennedy.

President Kennedy and then Vice-President Johnson (second from right) met with leaders of the August "March on Washington" dramatizing the nation's leading domestic issue in 1963.

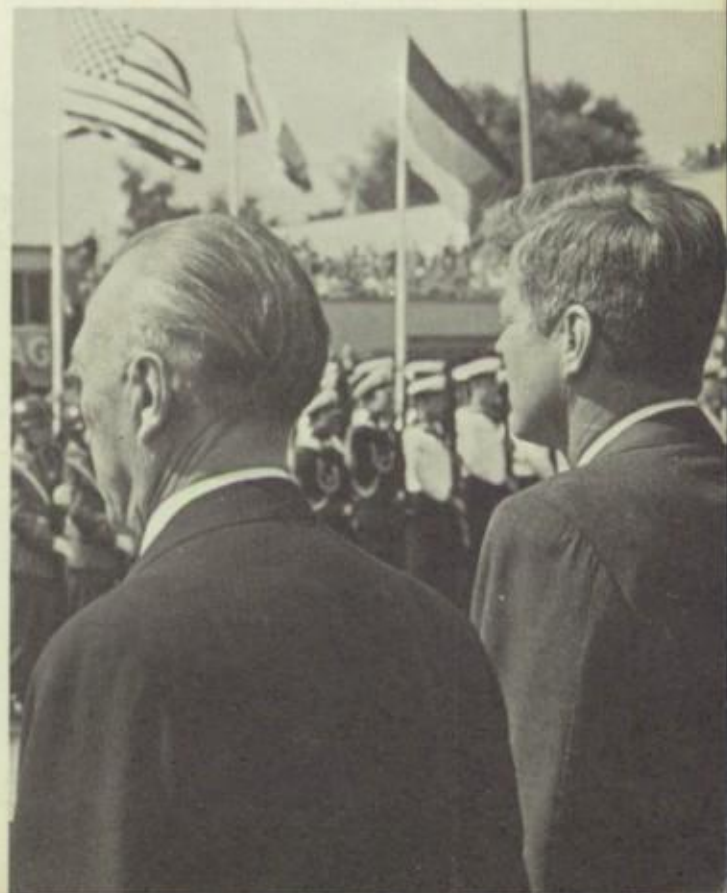

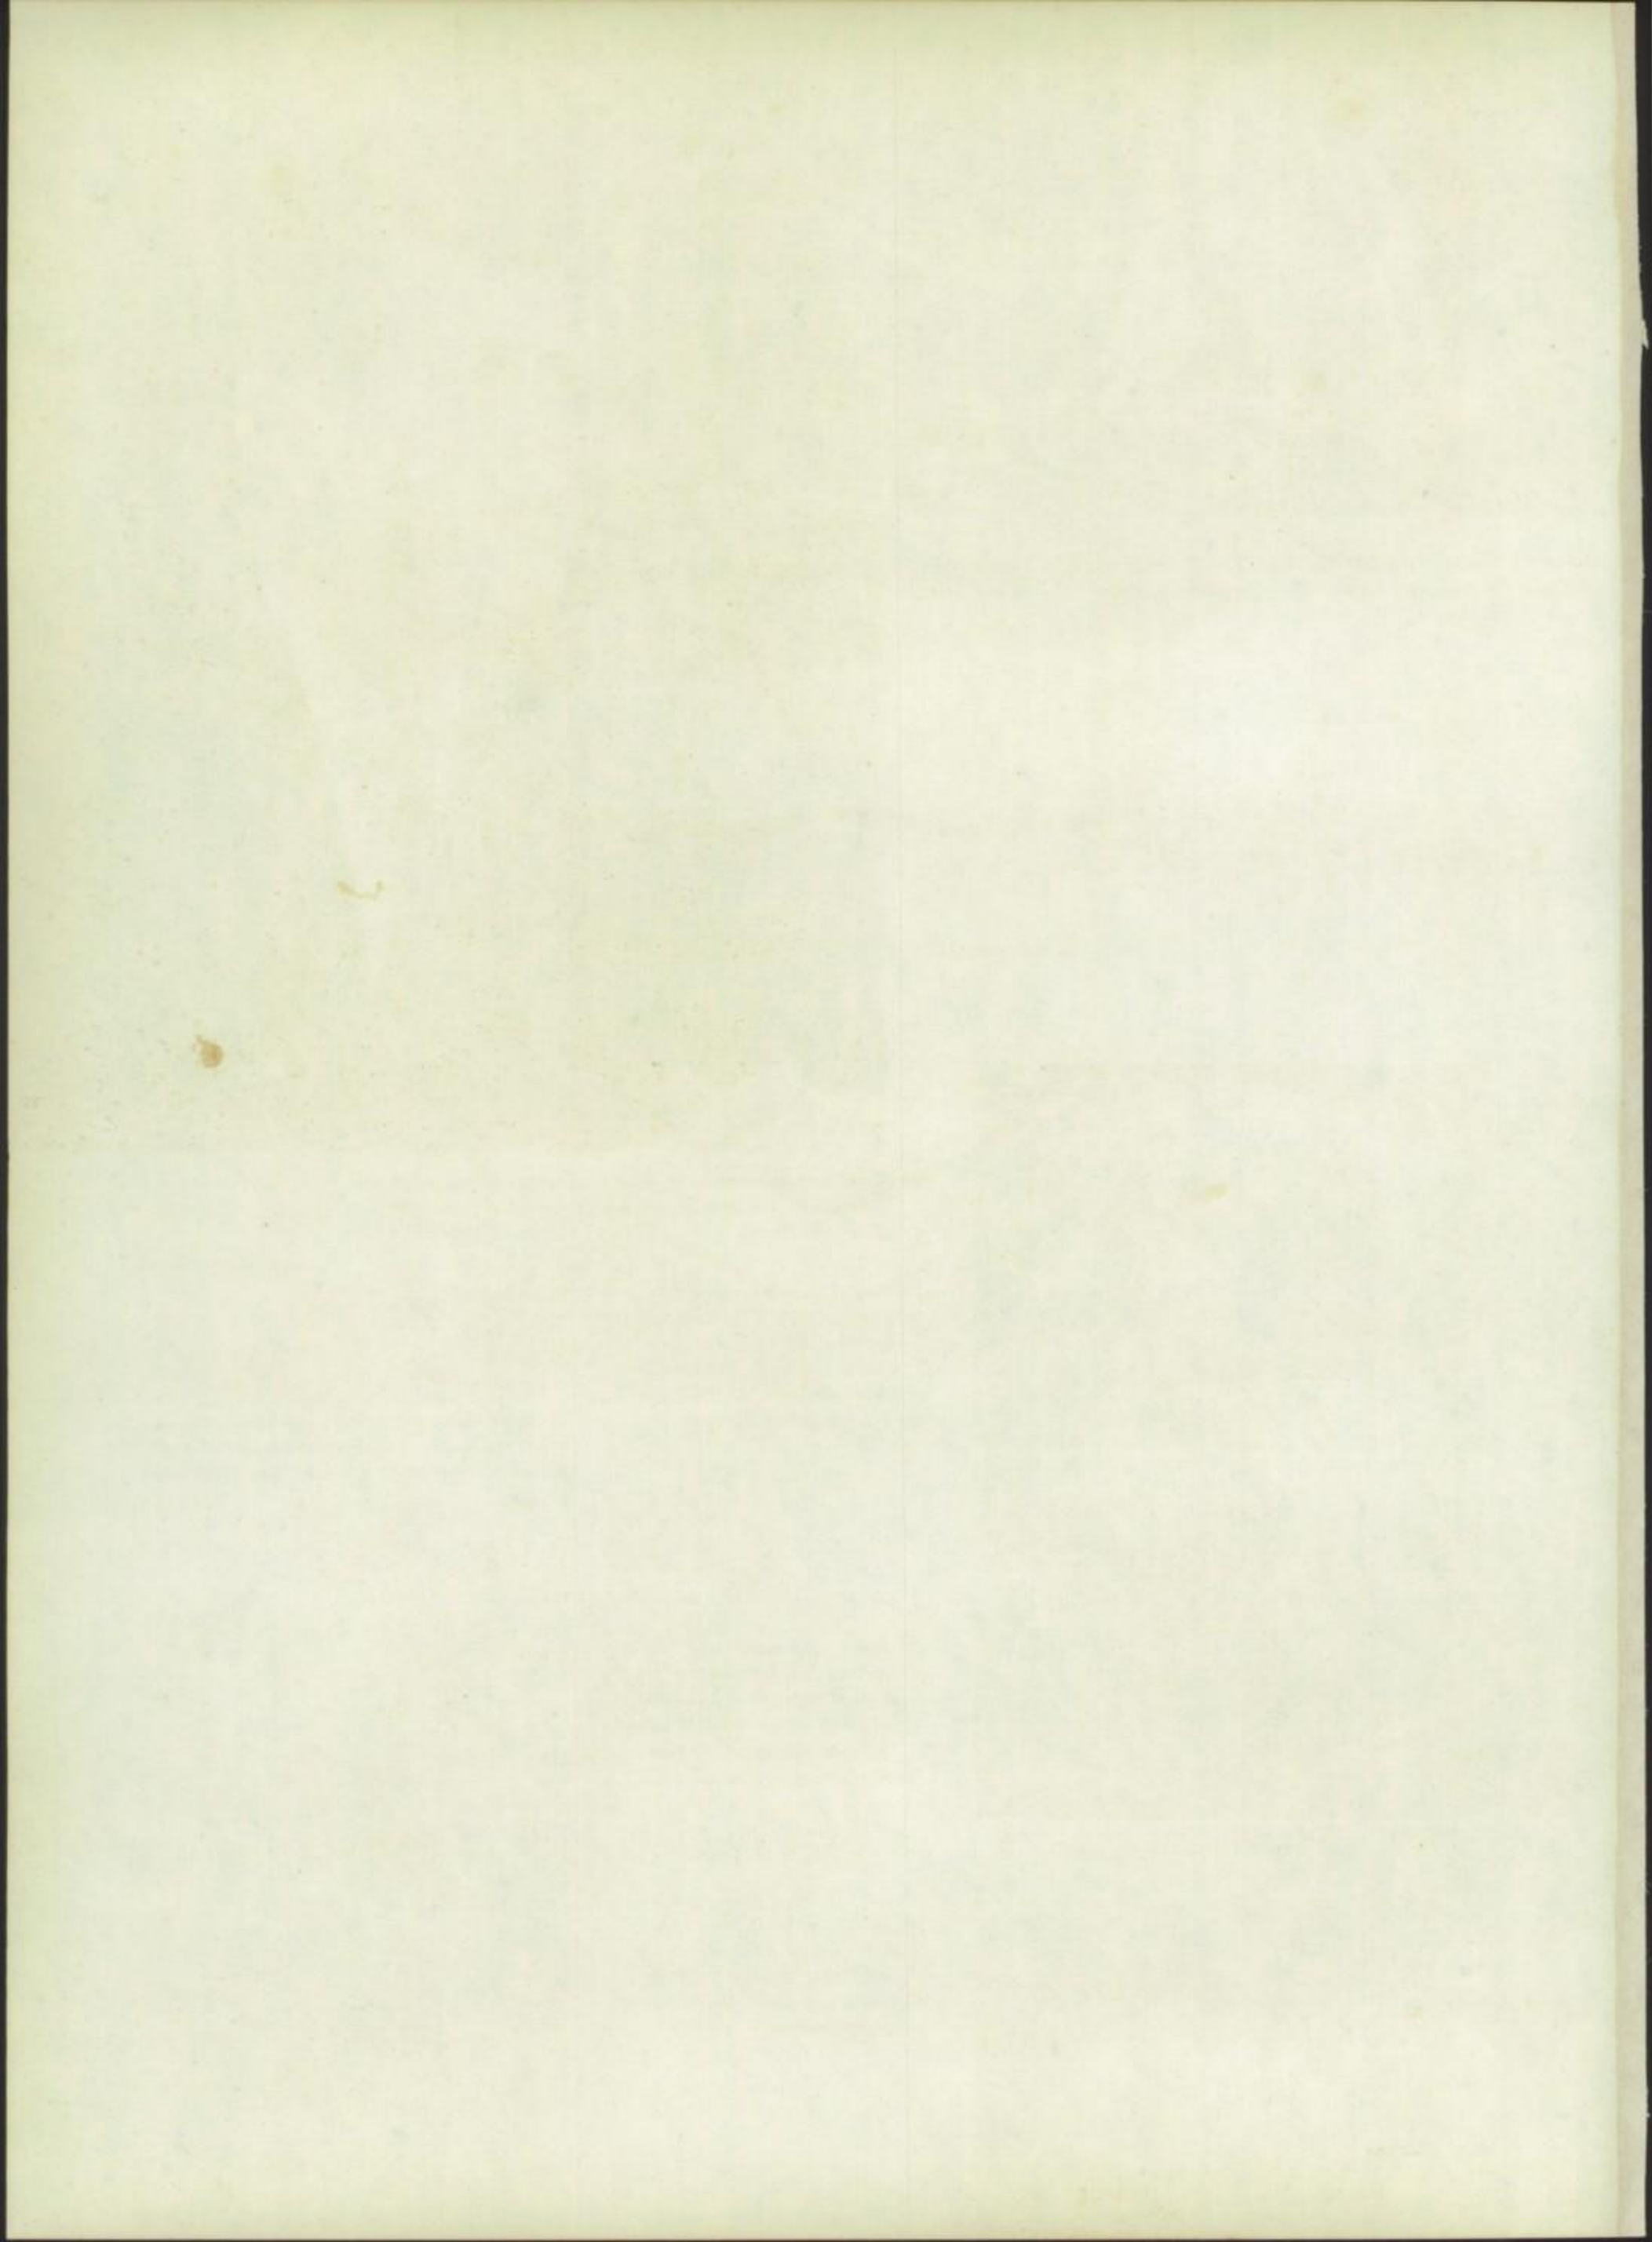

Major Gordon Cooper received the Distinguished Service Medal from President Kennedy at the White House in May, following Cooper's 22 orbit flight and manually controlled re-entry.

With the assassination of John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, youngest president in U.S. history, the country lost a highly-regarded and remarkably capable statesman and administrator.

President Kennedy, and soon-to-be-retired, German Chancellor Adenauer met in Bonn during Kennedy's successful ten-day tour of Western Europe.

THE CREST

The Crest shown above was adopted this year as the official Coat of Arms by the Liberty Center School. On the Crest the Tiger is the school mascot, the scales of justice and the gavel symbolize the name-sake of Henry County, Patrick Henry, the lamp represents general education, the atomic symbol represents the sciences, the winged foot symbolizes athletics, the oak leaf represents the oak tree planted in remembrance of the first white girl born in the area, and the buckeye leaf represents the state tree.

MEMORIES

With the passage of years you may look back upon this school year as the time when the darkness of ignorance suddenly became bright with the gleam of knowledge. To preserve a record of these moments is the purpose of this annual.

Besides the academic aspects of school life, this book strives to capture the athletic contests, the musical programs, the organizational activities, and the special events of the school year. These are all happy memories of the past year that we shared at Liberty High.

OUR ADVERTISERS

We wish to thank the following merchants for their support, and urge everyone to patronize them for their help. Without their support the 1964 TIGERON would not have been possible.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Serving very efficiently as school board members are:
Mr. Lowell Leatherman; Mr. Robert Griteman, Vice President;
Mr. James R. Phillips, President; Mr. Leo D. Barlow; and Mr. Henry Baker. The Board's Clerk-Treasurer is Miss Evelene Dulle.

Elected by the voters, the Liberty Center Board of Education represents their fellow taxpayers by administering the policies and regulations of Liberty Center High School. The student body wishes to express its sincere appreciation to the Board of Education for everything that these members have done during the past year.

Liberty Center High School has a rich tradition of accomplishment in the academic and co-curricular areas. Members of the senior class have measured up to these high standards as evidenced by the number of honors and awards presented to individuals. The Board of Education, administrators, and teachers join in extending best wishes for success and happiness to the Class of 1964.

Miss Evelene Dulle is the high school secretary. Mrs. Arita Silveus was the elementary secretary the first semester and Mrs. Doris Spiess is now the elementary secretary.

Mrs. Edna Rigal is the public librarian. Miss Ruth Saneholtz served as part-time librarian for the high school.

FACULTY SNAPS

Mrs. Margaret Gineman, Mrs. Ruby Kessler, Mrs. Mable Burkett, and Mrs. Blanche Gruber prepared the tasty lunches in the high school building.

Cooking delicious meals for the students in the elementary school building were: Mrs. Pearl Slee, Mrs. Jane Gruber, and Mrs. Annabelle Minnich.

Harry Wright, Lester Kessler, and Andy Gineman kept the two schools clean and comfortable.

SCHOOL EMPLOYEES

IT'S GREAT TO BE CRAZY

The misadventure of the Maxwell's started when Betty Lou had a poem printed in the school paper. Betty Lou just knew she was a descendant of Elizabeth Barrett Browning and wrote to a firm that looks up family trees to prove it. A letter from the firm arrived, but was intercepted by Pop, who gasped when he read the names of his notorious ancestors. One climax after another followed.

Other seniors who assisted in the senior class play include: Pam Levien, Student Director; David Parsons and Phil Brewster, Property Managers.

SENIORS

The senior class officers in this picture are Barbara Dulle, secretary; Carl Carter, treasurer; Verlin Rice, news reporter; Robert Gyurasics, president; Candy Burkett, vice-president.

The seniors chose lavender and white for their class colors, the cymbidium, or the baby orchid, for their class flower, "Liberty High" for their class song, and "Our ideal, whatever it may be, lies further on" for their class theme.

CLASS JOURNEY

Carrying pickaxes and ropes, 62 inexperienced freshmen began their four-year trek up a steep mountain. President, Carl Carter; Vice-President, Linda Gramling; Secretary, Marcia Fahringer; Treasurer, Eunice Schroeder; and News reporter, Carol Panning; with assistance from Mrs. Heising and Mr. Folk, the guides; made the first year's climb a safe trip. Other important hikers were: Lynn Morrison, Homecoming Attendant, and Barbara Dulle and Jim Leatherman, Student Council members.

Three more climbers joined the hikers the next year; then the expedition numbered 65. President, Candy Burkett; Vice-President, Dan Hefflinger; Secretary, Barbara Myers; Treasurer, Carol Guyer; and News reporter, Lynn Morrison; helped the class members cross the narrow ledges and treacherous cliffs. Supplying all the necessary equipment were Mrs. Cortright and Mr. Hiser. Carol Panning and Jim Leatherman, Student Council members, and Barbara Myers, Homecoming Attendant, gained valuable hiking experience.

After camping out during the summer, President, Phil Brewster; Vice-President, Carol Panning; Secretary, Dan Hefflinger; Treasurer, Candy Burkett; and News reporter, Linda Gramling; and advisors, Miss Sherman and Mr. Reiter; guided the 65 climbers toward the summit. Carol Panning was the Homecoming Attendant. Student Council members were Barbara Fuhrhop and Ken Vorwerk. Highlighting this trip was the prom "Apple Blossom Time."

Only 63 "rugged" mountaineers were left to complete the final stretch of the hike. Leading the group to the peak were: President, Bob Gyurasics; Vice-President, Candy Burkett; Secretary, Barbara Dulle; Treasurer, Carl Carter; and News reporter, Verlin Rice. Miss Saneholtz and Mr. Rickly, professional mountain scalers, ably assisted them. Carol Guyer and Ken Vorwerk served as Student Council Representatives. Candy Burkett starred as Homecoming Queen; Carol Guyer was Attendant. The class play "It's Great To Be Crazy," the trip to Chicago, and the prom "Roman Holiday" were the memorable events of this year's trek. Finally on May 24, 63 weary hikers reached the goal and received their well-earned reward--high school diplomas.

JUNIORS

The junior class operated the lunch stand at the football games and sold a variety of Christmas cards. Cecily Strock and Jerry Rohrs honored the class as Student Council representatives.

The highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom entitled "Roman Holiday."

PRESCRIPTION FOR SUCCESS

"WORK"

Work is a man's great function.

He is nothing, he can do nothing, he can achieve nothing, fulfill nothing, without working. If you are poor--work! If you are burdened with seemingly unfair responsibilities work. If you are happy, keep on working. Idleness gives room for doubts and fears. If disappointments come--work. If your health is threatened--work. When faith falters--work! When dreams are shattered and hope seems dead--work. Work as if your life were in peril --It really is! No matter what ails you--work! Work faithfully--Work with faith.

WORK IS THE GREATEST REMEDY AVAILABLE FOR BOTH MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AFFLICTIONS.

--James M. Cowan.

TIGER DEVILS

Starting the 1963 Football season the boys at Tiger High were faced with a new challenge that each member had to face alone. After each game the most outstanding player of that game received a Tiger Devil Emblem. This emblem represented that the player was the roughest and toughest member of the team. This year we had six Tiger Devils. The emblems are placed under each Tiger Devil's picture.
